

THE DAILY Pacific Commercial Advertiser IS PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
For annum.....$6 00
Six months.....3 00
Per month.....50c
Subscriptions Payable Always in Advance.

Communications from all parts of the Kingdom will always be very acceptable.
Persons residing in any part of the United States can remit the amount of subscription due by Post Office money order.

Matter intended for publication in the editorial columns should be addressed to
"EDITOR PACIFIC COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER."
Business communications and advertisements should be addressed simply
"P. C. ADVERTISER."

And not to individuals.

THE Pacific Commercial Advertiser

Is now for sale DAILY at the Following Places
J. H. SOPER.....Merchant street
A. M. HEWITT.....Merchant street
T. G. THURM.....Fort street
WM. STRAUBMANN.....Hawailian Hotel

Five Cents per Copy.

TUESDAY : : : : July 12th.

The work of lighting up the city by electricity is progressing rapidly. The poles to receive the wires have all been erected on the plains, and a gang of men are now at work in the heart of the city. When completed there will be over sixty lights.

JUDGE WALKER, of the Supreme Court, Victoria, British Columbia, lately sued the publisher and proprietor of the "Colonist" for libel. It consisted in reproducing certain sworn evidence, which was commented on favorably to the plaintiff. The jury awarded the Judge $2,500 damages. Mrs. Walker, wife of the Judge, recently visited this city. She is sister to the Misses Pattie and Mabel Rhodes.

A CIRCULAR was received at the Navy Department, Washington, July 1st, from a Chicago man, announcing that he has solved the problem of aerial navigation, and is about to build a great airship, which will start on a journey on the first of the new year on a voyage to the North Pole. He estimates that a month's time will suffice for the voyage, allowing ten days or two weeks for scientific observations of phenomena. The ship will carry 200 persons, and will travel at a speed of seventy miles an hour. The man is evidently a crank.

Mr. W. J. GILLESPIE, a native of Chicago, who for the last two years has worked in a responsible position on the Panama Canal, arrived at his home from Panama June 27th. He stated to a Chicago reporter that there are from 12,000 to 14,000 men altogether at work on the canal at present, but if the Canal Company does not get another loan the work cannot go on much longer. There has been the grossest mismanagement in every direction. The parts of the canal that have been excavated have been allowed to fill up with clay washed down by the river, so that much of the work has to be done twice. Immense quantities of useless machinery, made principally in Belgium, are strewn all along the route, lying idle and rusting. In some places the line of the canal has been changed after being cut, so that a new cutting had to be made to fill in the old one. There is much mismanagement in every direction, and such a general slipshod way of carrying on the business that if they had all the money they wanted. He did not believe they could have the canal finished for ten years.

Supreme Court—July Term.

BEFORE PRESTON, J.
MONDAY, July 11th.
Kimo vs. Kallianu, ejectment. After empanelling a jury, plaintiff submits to a nonsuit. J. M. Poepeo for plaintiff; W. A. Kinney for defendant.

Flora H. St. Clair vs. W. M. Gibson, breach of promise. On motion of affidavit of defendant it was ordered that the case stand continued to the October term. W. O. Smith and W. A. Kinney for plaintiff, Hon. Paul Neumann and F. M. Hatch for the defendant.

BEFORE THE FULL COURT.

Chief Justice Judd and Associate Justices Preston and Bickerton being present on the Bench, the clerk reads the commission of C. W. Ashford as Attorney General. The Chief Justice presented the Attorney General to the bar, and his Excellency and Hon. Paul Neumann responded.

AT CHAMBERS—BEFORE JUDD, C. J.
In the matter of Gustav Miller, of the German bark Gerastes. Habeas corpus petition by George Coch. Paul Neumann for petitioner, Attorney General contra. The case was continued until 10 a. m. to-day to admit of the attendance of the German Consul.

Police Court.

BEFORE POLICE JUSTICE DAYTON.

MONDAY, July 11th.
H. Christian, Kamikohai, Pani, F. W. Form, Frank Anderson, Pa and Samuel had each to pay $6 for drunkenness.

Francis Dorcas, for assault and battery on Ah Sam, pleaded guilty, and was fined $20.

John Gomez, charged with heedless driving, was found guilty and fined $7, with $10 costs.

Christian Frost was charged with assault and battery with a gun on Pablo and was remanded till moved on.

THE QUEEN IN NORWICH.

Her Majesty and Suite Receive a Hearty Welcome.

On June 4th Queen Kapiolani and suite arrived at Norwich from Liverpool. A large crowd had assembled at the station to obtain a glimpse of the Royal party.

The Mayor of Norwich, H. Bullard, Esq., wearing his chain of office, Mrs. Bullard, Miss Hilda Bullard and Master Bullard were in waiting, with the Town Clerk and the civic officers bearing the maces, to give Her Majesty, the Princess and suite a welcome.

MESSAGE FROM QUEEN VICTORIA.

Immediately on the Queen's arrival Captain Steward handed her a telegram that had been awaiting her. It proved to be a message from Her Majesty Queen Victoria, welcoming Queen Kapiolani to England. It was in reply to one Queen Kapiolani had sent to Her Majesty Queen Victoria from Liverpool, thanking her for the reception given her on setting foot on English soil. Rackheath Hall, where the party stayed, is furnished in a style which gave the Hawaiian Queen and Princess an idea of the stately and beautiful homes of England. In the entrance hall are antique carvings, curiosities and articles of vertu, some of which remind those acquainted with Norfolk and Norwich history of a Norwich worthy of the sixteenth century, Augustine Steward, three times Mayor of Norwich.

RECEPTION AT RACKHEATH HALL.

Captain Steward was, in waiting, at Salhouse Station to receive his illustrious guests. A fitting and hearty reception was accorded to Her Majesty at the station, which the authorities of the Great Eastern Railway Company had instructed to be suitably decorated for the occasion by the laying down of scarlet cloth, etc. Several carriages had been provided by Captain Steward for the Queen, the Princess, and the distinguished personages accompanying them, as well as for their attendants. The party consisted of Her Majesty Queen Kapiolani, Her Royal Highness Princess Lydia Liliuokalani, the heiress presumptive; His Excellency General Dominis, Commander-in-Chief; His Excellency General Curtis P. Lauea, Chamberlain; Colonel James H. Boyd, A. D. C.; Colonel G. W. Macfarlane, A. D. C.; Sidney B. F. Hoffnung, Esq., Charge d'Affaires and Attache; Mrs. Hoffnung; R. F. Syngue, Esq., of the Foreign Office; H. R. Armstrong, Esq., Hawaiian Consul General; Captain and Mrs. Steward, the Mayor and Mayress of Ipswich, Admiral and Miss Derriman, the Hon. W. and Mrs. Harbord, Sir F. Eade, the Deputy Mayor of Norwich (J. Hotblack, Esq.), and Mrs. Beverley, the Sheriff of Norwich (F. O. Taylor, Esq.) and the Misses Taylor, J. J. Colman, Esq., M. P., Mrs. Colman, and Mr. Russell Colman, Colonel and Mrs. Combe, Colonel and Mrs. Bignold, the Dean of Norwich and Mrs. Goulburn, Rev. Canon Heaviside, Rev. F. and Mrs. Syngue, Dr. Beverley, C. R. Gilman, Esq., and Mrs. Gilman, W. J. U. Browne, Esq., D. Steward, Esq., and Mrs. Steward, Miss Haines, Miss Ganz, F. W. Harner, Esq., Mrs. Harner and Mr. J. A. Harner, Mr. and Mrs. F. Bullard, Mrs. C. Bullard, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bullard, Mr. and Mrs. Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley, the Town Clerk and Mrs. Miller, Mr. Herbert Bullard, Master E. J. Bullard, Mr. Woolbright, Mr. G. B. Kennett and Mr. D. Gaul.

CORDIAL WELCOME.

From Mrs. Steward, Colonel G. W. Macfarlane, A. D. C., joined Her Majesty's suite on Monday. The public will naturally wonder how it is that the Hawaiian Queen and Princess should so soon after their landing in England have journeyed quite across the country to visit Norfolk. Apparently she had learned something about the eastern part of England which made her desirous of seeing a Norfolk home, and to visit the ancient capital of East Anglia, and more particularly Norwich Cathedral. With a chivalrous feeling, which both the county of Norfolk and the city of Norwich will appreciate, Captain Steward invited the Hawaiian Queen, Princess and suite to take up their abode for a few days at his home at Rackheath, which is only a short distance from Norwich, in order that they might see something of both county and city with the least possible inconvenience. The reception accorded by Captain and Mrs. Steward to the Queen and Princess was one befitting.

THEIR ROYAL STATE.

And the honored guests of Her Majesty Queen Victoria. Both Queen Kapiolani and the Princess Liliuokalani were dressed in black; the former wore a long fur boa. They brought with them the magnificent bouquets with which they had been presented en route. Another was presented to the Queen on her entrance into the hall by Master Steward, who wore a pretty costume similar to that in which his portrait, which adorns the dining-room, was painted by Sir John Millais.

AT THE CATHEDRAL.

In the afternoon of Sunday Her Majesty and the Princess attended evensong at the Cathedral, and the fact having become generally known, the congregation, never a very small one at this service, was one of the largest ever seen within its walls. The visit appeared to excite the liveliest public interest, for in addition to the immense assembly which thronged every available part of the Cathedral, thousands of curious sightseers were gathered. The transepts, the chancel, and the nave were filled in every part long before the hour, half-past three, at which the service commenced. Just previous to the striking of the half-hour the approach of the Royal party was heralded by the strains of the National anthem, played by the Cathedral organist, Dr. Bates. The entrance of Her Majesty and the Princess was a most interesting and impressive spectacle. The choristers, the lay clerks and the clergy entered the choir in the usual order, and were closely followed by the mace bearers, immediately after whom came Her Majesty Queen Kapiolani and the Princess Liliuokalani, closely followed by the Mayor of Norwich (Mr. H. Bullard), the Sheriff (Mr. F. O. Taylor), the Deputy Mayor (Mr. J. Hotblack), the Town Clerk (Mr. H. B. Miller). There also attended Mr. Councilor J. Stanley and Mrs. Stanley, Admiral Derreming, Miss Ganz, Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong, Mr. Hoffnung, Gov. Lauka, Mr. R. F. Syngue of the Foreign Office, and Col. Boyd. Her Majesty and the Princess were conducted to seats.

CANOPIED WITH CRIMSON CLOTH.

Immediately below the Bishop's throne, and directly facing the pulpit. Captain and Mrs. Steward, the Royal visitors' host and hostess, occupied the two same side seats, and the stalls upon the same side were filled by the other members of the party. The service was at once proceeded with, the lessons for the day being read respectively by the Rev. Canon Robinson and the Very Rev. the Dean, the hymn preceding the sermon being No. 529, and commencing "Three in One and One in Three."

The Rev. Canon Robinson based his discourse upon the sixth and two following verses of the first chapter of the Acts of the Apostles. The Royal party remained throughout the service. At its conclusion, the Dean and the rest of the clergy attended Her Majesty and the Princess to the west door through the densely thronged nave, the crowd assembled outside to witness the departure being even greater than that which had gathered to witness the arrival. The Queen, the Princess and their suite drove away in three open carriages, the order of their arrival being reversed so that the Queen's carriage might not be kept waiting.

LOOKING AROUND NORWICH.

On Monday, June 6th, Her Majesty and the Princess Liliuokalani, attended by her suite and by her host and hostess, Captain W. J. and Mrs. Steward, visited the principal buildings in Norwich. The party first went to the Cathedral, the precincts of which were occupied by considerable crowds. Along the way to the Cathedral the Royal visitors received a cordial welcome. They were escorted around the edifice by the Dean of Norwich, the Mayor (H. Bullard, Esq.), the Deputy Mayor (J. Hotblack, Esq.), and the Sheriff (F. O. Taylor, Esq.), and others. Both the Queen and the Princess appeared to be greatly interested in what they saw. From the Cathedral the party proceeded to St. Andrew's Hall, which building they entered to the strains of the National Anthem, played by Dr. Bunnell on the fine organ. The Mayor gave his guests a brief history of the hall, going back to the time when it was built by the Black Friars, as a church, and that it fell into the hands of the citizens in the reign of Henry VIII., since when it had been used for many public purposes. The portraits were shown to the Queen and Princess, who showed especial interest in the portrait of Lord Nelson, and the trophies of his victories sent by him to Norwich.

THE MAYOR'S DEBUT.

In the Council Chamber was an elegant and recherche repast. On the right of the Mayor sat Her Majesty Queen Kapiolani and Mrs. Bullard, and on his left H. R. H. the Princess Liliuokalani. The guests included H. E. General Curtis P. Lauea, Chamberlain; Colonel James H. Boyd, A. D. C.; Colonel G. W. Macfarlane, A. D. C.; Sidney B. F. Hoffnung, Esq., Charge d'Affaires and Attache; Mrs. Hoffnung; R. F. Syngue, Esq., of the Foreign Office; H. R. Armstrong, Esq., Hawaiian Consul General; Captain and Mrs. Steward, the Mayor and Mayress of Ipswich, Admiral and Miss Derriman, the Hon. W. and Mrs. Harbord, Sir F. Eade, the Deputy Mayor of Norwich (J. Hotblack, Esq.), and Mrs. Beverley, the Sheriff of Norwich (F. O. Taylor, Esq.) and the Misses Taylor, J. J. Colman, Esq., M. P., Mrs. Colman, and Mr. Russell Colman, Colonel and Mrs. Combe, Colonel and Mrs. Bignold, the Dean of Norwich and Mrs. Goulburn, Rev. Canon Heaviside, Rev. F. and Mrs. Syngue, Dr. Beverley, C. R. Gilman, Esq., and Mrs. Gilman, W. J. U. Browne, Esq., D. Steward, Esq., and Mrs. Steward, Miss Haines, Miss Ganz, F. W. Harner, Esq., Mrs. Harner and Mr. J. A. Harner, Mr. and Mrs. F. Bullard, Mrs. C. Bullard, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bullard, Mr. and Mrs. Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley, the Town Clerk and Mrs. Miller, Mr. Herbert Bullard, Master E. J. Bullard, Mr. Woolbright, Mr. G. B. Kennett and Mr. D. Gaul.

THE HEALTH OF QUEEN KAPIOLANI.

The Mayor said: May it please Your Majesty, Your Royal Highness, ladies and gentlemen, I have now a pleasant duty to perform. We are glad to find in our old city visitors from islands far beyond the American Continent. It is a proud moment in my experience to have the honor of escorting Her Majesty Queen Kapiolani through our city, and entertaining her in this hall. We in Norwich—may all Englishmen—feel honored that a good woman, if Your Majesty will pardon me in thus speaking, has come thousands of miles to pay a mark of esteem and respect to our most gracious Sovereign, Queen Victoria. [Cheers.] It becomes us as loyal citizens to honor so noble a Queen who has undertaken so great a journey to pay honor to the Queen we love so well. [Cheers.] Your Majesty, before your arrival in Norwich, your goodness was known to us, and I am sure that during the past few days the history of Hawaii has not been so much perused in any part of the world as in the city of Norwich. [Hear, hear.] I am sure that the citizens, on whose behalf I speak, value your visit, and desire that you may for many years to come look back with pleasure on this visit to my native city. [Hear, hear.] I now ask my fellow citizens and friends here assembled to do deserved honor to a toast such as has never before been given by a Mayor of Norwich, namely, "The health of Her Majesty Queen Kapiolani" [cheers] who has undertaken so arduous a journey to pay her respects to our beloved Queen. [Cheers.] May Her Majesty's progress through this country be a pleasant one; may she on return to her own land be blessed by her people over whom she has reigned so well, and may she long retain reminiscences of this visit to our old city, which, though not so large as others in the realm, can boast of hearts which can give a generous welcome and do honor where it is deserved. [Cheers.] In this respect Norwich is second to none. Ladies and gentlemen, I give you "The Health of Her Majesty Queen Kapiolani." (The toast was drunk with cheers.)

THE TOAST WAS HEARTILY DRUNK.

The toast was heartily drunk, and Mr. Sidney B. Hoffnung, the Charge d'Affaires, responded in a brilliant speech, in which he said he had the commands of the Queen and the Princess to thank the Mayor and the citizens for their kind and enthusiastic reception, which could never be forgotten.

A VISIT TO THE CASTLE.

Her Majesty and the Princess were then escorted on to the carpeted leads of the Guildhall, where they remained for some time interested spectators of the Market Place and its surroundings. The next place visited was the Castle, over the ancient portion of which the Royal party were shown by Mr. Governor Dent, after he had been introduced by the Mayor to the Queen and the Princess. The Mayor here gave the visitors a brief historical sketch of the mound and the Norman keep.

ON MONDAY EVENING CAPTAIN AND MRS. STEWARD GAVE A

STATE DINNER.

At Rackheath Hall in honor of the visit. Queen Kapiolani wore on this occasion her coronation robe of white silk embroidered with white and gold shot, with threads of divers-colored silk. The dress was Hawaiian in style. She wore no ornaments except a bracelet. The Princess wore a black net dress of European shape with ferns and flowers in her hair. Among the guests were the Mayor of Norwich and Mrs. Bullard, Sir Edward Stracey, and Mr. Gilbert Stracey.

During Her Majesty's stay at Rackheath she showed great pleasure in the scenery which the pretty park and neighborhood afford. Her Majesty rose early on Tuesday morning and took a walk in the park with some of her lady attendants. After an early breakfast the Queen expressed a wish for a drive, which was complied with, Mrs. Steward, Captain Steward, some of Her Majesty's officers, and Mr. Joseph Stanley accompanying Her Majesty as far as Wroxham Broad through the well-known Beech Avenue. With the scenery en route and the Broad Her Majesty

EXPRESSED HERSELF CHARMED.

On their return the party visited Salhouse Broad, where the children of the village presented her with wild flowers. Subsequently, on returning to Rackheath Hall, the Queen was asked to plant a tree (arbor vite) in the park opposite the drawing-room of the Hall, with which request Her Majesty graciously complied with, taking a massive silver shovel, with ebony handle, heavily mounted with silver. After the ceremony of planting the tree, Her Majesty presented the shovel to Captain Steward. On Her Majesty leaving the Hall a crowd assembled and cheered her, at the same time throwing flowers before the carriage.

On Tuesday, June 7th, Her Majesty Queen Kapiolani and Princess Liliuokalani and suite passed through Ipswich, the train stopping six minutes. It was well known that advantage would be taken of the short stay of Queen Kapiolani to convey to her some expression of welcome from the loyal inhabitants of Ipswich, and long before the train was due the up platform was crowded, and there were many on the down platform. A short time before the arrival of the train his Worship the Mayor (Edward Packard, Esq., J. R.), in his robes, attended by the Deputy Mayor (B. P. Grimsey, Esq.), and preceded by the mace, proceeded to the station, where a space the width of Her Majesty's carriage had been carpeted and reserved for them by the borough police, who maintained good order in the increasing crowd.

ADDRESS TO THE QUEEN.

After preliminary introductions, the Mayor read to the Queen the following address, and then presented it to Her Majesty:

To Her Majesty Kapiolani, Queen of Hawaii:

We, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Ipswich, avail ourselves of the occasion of your Majesty's passing through our midst to express our own great gratification at the opportunity afforded us of personally meeting one who is the successor of the great and good Queen Emma, whose fame is so happily remembered by all the inhabitants of Great Britain.

The interest that has been taken by His Majesty the King of Hawaii and by you, His Royal Consort, in the advancement of Christianity and the arts of civilization, is a cause for our highest thankfulness, and we beg your Majesty to convey to the King this expression of our loyal feeling. It is our earnest hope that your Majesty's visit to England may still more firmly cement the friendly relations which have so long existed between the Government of Her Majesty the Queen and the Government of Hawaii.

Given under the common seal of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Ipswich, this 7th day of June, 1887.

(Signed) EDWARD PACKARD, JR., Mayor.

WM. BANTOFF, JR., Town Clerk.

The address was beautifully executed by Waterloo Brothers and Layton, of Birch Lane, London, in gold, pink, blue, mauve and other colors. It was surrounded by a pale gold border. The initial letter and first eight words were boldly treated, and at first sight the whole pleased the eye. In the left corner were the Borough Arms, and for the first time the garter appeared, filled with the new motto, "Munificencia, decus civium." The address was inclosed in a handsome leather case, with the following inscription: "From the Corporation of Ipswich. Her Majesty Kapiolani, Queen of Hawaii," in gilt letters.

THE QUEEN'S REPLY.

Her Majesty seemed much pleased with the address, and replied through the interpreter as follows:

To the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Ipswich:

We thank you for your kind and cordial welcome. It gives us the deepest gratification to feel that, though far from our own country, we are among a people who have always shown their friendship and kindly sympathy towards our predecessor and our Royal husband. It has ever been, and with God's mercy we trust will always be, the highest endeavor of our Royal house, and of ourselves to further the cause of Christianity and to encourage as far as in our power the development of those arts and sciences which make a country prosperous at home, and admired and respected abroad.

Our visit to England has given us the greatest pleasure, and will, we trust, further cement the links of friendship that bind us so firmly to the people of England and their beloved and illustrious Sovereign.

The above was written in the form of an address, and after being read it was given to the Mayor. It is headed with the Royal Arms of Hawaii, and dated and signed:

Ipswich, June 7th, 1887.

KAPIOLANI.

CURTIS P. LAUEA,

Her Majesty's Chamberlain.

The Mayors, Mrs. Packard, of Birkfield, Mrs. Grimsey, Mrs. and the Misses Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. Westhorp, Miss Turner, and the Town Clerk were presented to Her Majesty, who accepted bouquets of choice flowers from the Mayors, the Misses Skinner and Mrs. Westhorp. Mrs. Westhorp had the honor of handing Her Majesty a handsome basket of rhododendrons. The bouquet presented by the Misses Skinner was composed entirely of pale pink and white roses, the Hawaiian colors, and that presented by the Mayors was a model of exquisite grouping.

The Queen was continually cheered, and she repeatedly bowed her acknowledgments. As the train started slowly out of the station hats were raised and the platform.

FAMILIAR SAYINGS.

Writers to Whom the Authorship of Many of Them is Traced.

Many of our common sayings, so true and pithy, are used without the least idea from whose pen or mouth they first originated. Probably the works of Shakespeare furnish us with more of these familiar maxims than any other writer, for to him we owe "All is not gold that glitters," "Make a virtue of necessity," "Screw your courage to the sticking place," (not point), "They laugh that win," "This is the short and long of it," "Comparisons are odious," "As merry as the day is long," "A Daniel come to judgment," "Frailty, thy name is woman," and a host of others.

Washington Irving gives "The almighty dollar."

Thomas Murgan queried long ago, "What will Mrs. Grundy say?" while Goldsmith answers, "Ask no questions and I'll tell you no fibs."

Charles Pinckney gives "Millions for defense, but not one cent for tribute." "First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his fellow-citizens" (not countrymen), appeared in the resolutions presented to the House of Representatives in December, 1790, by General Henry Lee.

Thomas Tassier, a writer of the sixteenth century, gives us "Better late than never," "Look ere you leap" and "The stone that is rolling can gather no moss."

"All cry and no wool" is found in Butler's "Hudibras."

Drayton says, "None but the brave deserve the fair," "Men are but children of a larger growth" and "Through thick and thin."

"When Greece joined Greece then was the tug of war," came from Nathaniel Lee.

"Of two evils I have chosen the least," and the "End must justify the means," are from Matthew Prior.

We are indebted to Colley Cibber for the agreeable intelligence that "Richard is himself again."

Johnson tells us of "a good hater," and McIntosh, in 1791, the phrase often attributed to John Randolph, "Wise and masterly inactivity."

"Variety is the spice of life," and "Not much the worse for wear," Cowper. "Man proposes, but God disposes," Thomas A. Kempis.

Christopher Marlowe gave forth the invitation so often repeated by his brothers in a less public way, "Love me little, love me long."

Edward Coke was of the opinion that "A man's house is his castle."

To Milton we owe "The paradise of fools," "A wilderness of sweets" and "Moping melancholy and moon-struck madness."

Edward Young tells us "Death loves a shining mark" and "A fool at forty is a fool indeed."

From Bacon comes "Knowledge is power," and Thomas Southern reminds us that "Pity's akin to love," while Dean Swift thought that "Bread is the staff of life."—Brooklyn Magazine.

PHILOSOPHER DUNDER.

His Discourses on Several Little Things of Almost Daily Occurrence.

Sometimes somebody comes to me and says vhas I Carl Dunder! I vhas. All right, Mr. Dunder, I vhas going to trafel und I like some advice of you. Und I says to him: "Keep sober, take the middle car on a railroad train, und doan' bet on some odder man's game."

Sometimes a man mit a plug hat und a bland shmile comes into my saloon und says how vhas you vhas, Mr. Dunder, und how vhas dot good wife of yours, und how does Shake get along, und pless my soul! but you vhas der fattest und jolliest Dutchmans in Detroit! Say, Mr. Dunder, I like to shepeak a few words mit you in brivate. I vhas going to run for office dis fall, und I like to count on you to help me through. I pring all der barty hers to pny beer, und I make Shake my deputy, eh? How vhas it, oldt frendt? Und I say to him: "Der man who depends upon bolitics vhas a knave of a fool. Der man who depends upon bolitics vhas all fool. If I help you und you vhas elected you forget me. If I help you und you vhas defeated dot odder candidate vhas my enemy for life."

Sometimes a man mit a sadt look on his face slips aroundt to me und says I like to talk to you, Mr. Dunder. I vhas in some troubles mit my wife, und I like to ask your advice. If you would be so kindt as to tell me—Und I says to him: "My dear frendt, vhen it is time for husband or wife to get mit somebody else to complain of each odder it vhas time to go to der courts for a divorce. Vhen family troubles can't be kept in der family it vhas better dot you go off und drown yourself."

Sometimes a young man comes in very softly vhen nobody vhas aroundt und says, hello, Mr. Dunder, you nud my fadder has been frendts a good while, und I like to ask a leedle favor. I vhas a leedle behindt financially, und I like to ask you to loan me twenty dollars. Und I say to him: "Vhen a young man vhas behindt financially something vhas wrong mit his way of living. Vhen a young man has to go to his fadder's frendt to raise twenty dollar it vhas a matter dot der fadder can't know too soon."—Detroit Free Press.

Jay Gould No Log Roller.

While Jay Gould was in Little Rock a few days ago standing on a street corner, an old negro shoved his way through the crowd, approached the railroad car and said: "Look heah, dis heah ain't Jay Gould, is it?" "That's my name." "Do Gould what dar's so much 'plaut' about?" "There is some complaint with regard to me, I regret to say." "Wall, I declar, an' dis heah little dar is de pesson dat hab raised sich a skeer! Wy, sah, I's got er boy dat ain't no mo' dan 19 years ole dat kin whup yer; kinf jinf yan down, sah, an' giv yer de vantage of de boik. Vhen I heerd folks talk erbout yer I thought dar yer wuz er mighty man, I did, sah. Heerd er lot of 'white men er talkin', an' one o'em said dat yer'd come down heah ter log roll wid de loggers." "Wy, vhas you, yersef daid kno' now er foll logs. I bet yer dat, as ole as I right now—an' I'll be sixty-8 in August—I kin outfif yer at er han' spike. Wanter try me, sah?" "I believe not," Mr. Gould replied. "Haw! haw! yer knows dat I ken down yer. Talk ter me erbout er log roller!"—Arkansas Traveler.

Advertisements.

GRAND ANNUAL !!! MAMMOTH !!!

CLEARANCE SALE

Popular Millinery House,

104 Fort St., Honolulu.

N. S. SACHS, Proprietor.

To Commence Monday, July 11, 1887.

Positively for two weeks only. Bonafide sale and positive bargains. The entire stock will be offered

AT COST AND LESS THAN COST!

In fact a great many of the Prices Will be Cut in Two.

Positively no reserve. All Goods will be marked in plain figures and

SOLD FOR CASH ONLY!

Look at the Price-list Circular.

537 MRS. MELLIS' Dressmaking establishment on the premises.

W. S. LUCE,

WINE AND SPIRIT MERCHANT,
CAMPBELL FIRE-PROOF BLOCK, MERCHANT ST., HONOLULU.

Has just received from Europe per "Hercules,"

200 Cases Guinness' Extra Stout,

Bottled by M. B. FOSTER & SONS.

ALSO FINE ASSORTMENT OF

HOCK AND CLARET.

These Wines were especially selected for W. S. Luce, and are far superior to any ever before imported into this market.

THE FINEST ASSORTED STOCK OF

CHAMPAGNES, ALES, WINES, ETC.